MICHAELA NERANTZINI

POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCHER
NEUROLINGUISTICS

SPEECH & LANGUAGE THERAPY
DEPARTMENT,
UNIVERSITY OF PATRAS

Michaela Nerantzini holds a Ph.D. in Neurolinguistics from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. Her research focuses on the relationship between language and cognitive deficits in both acquired and developmental disorders. Her additional research area concerns the study of aphasia with the aim of designing effective intervention tools to enhance the language and cognitive skills of people with acquired language disorders. After her doctoral studies, she completed a two-year post-doctoral fellowship at Northwestern University in the US. From 2017 onwards she has worked as a postdoctoral fellow at the Department of Philology of the University of Ioannina and of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. She has participated in several funded international and national research projects and she has published her research on both developmental and acquired language disorders in peer-reviewed journals, in book chapters and in international conference proceedings.
